Objection to the inclusion of Data form (GDPR compliant)

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), you have a right to object to the processing of your data in certain circumstances. This means that you have the right to require the School to stop processing your data. In relation to your employment with the School, you may object to processing where it is carried out:

- in relation to the School's legitimate interests
- for the performance of a task in the public interest
- in the exercise of official authority or
- for profiling purposes.

Where you object to processing, the School will stop the processing activity objected to unless:

- the School can demonstrate compelling legitimate reasons for the processing which are believed to be more important than your rights or
- the processing is required in relation to legal claims made by, or against, the School.

If the response to your request is that the School will take no action, you will be informed of the reasons.
If one of the circumstances above applies, your request for deletion will be refused. The School will write to you setting out the reason for refusal.

Once completed, please submit this form to the Chief Privacy Officer
